

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Extracted from the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE of August, 1860, page 196.

"THOMAS BELL, Esq.—April 30, at his residence, in Cumberland Row. Newcastle-upon-Tyne, aged 74, Thomas Bell, Esq., land valuer and surveyor, and a diligent antiquary.

"In his profession Mr. Bell was a man of conspicuous ability, and his experience and connections were so considerable that the greater portion of the land in the northern counties had passed under his professional notice. On the death of his father, he was appointed one of the surveyors and land valuers of the Duke of Northumberland. He was also commissioner, valuer, or surveyor on the division of most of the common lands in the district that have been enclosed, and was arbitrator for the settlement of the purchase money of the land abstracted by the formation of the various railways in the northern district during the last half century.

"Although Mr. Bell has not left behind him any published works, his library was greatly enriched by his manuscript geneslogical and antiquarian compilations, and we find that the authors of most of the topographical and antiquarian works of local interest acknowledge his aid in their undertakings; in particular, he greatly assisted his late friend, the Rev. John Hodgson, in his 'History of Northumberland.' A collector from his youth, Mr. Bell brought together one of the largest and most valuable collections of books, papers, and engravings ever formed in the North of England, particularly in matters of local interest. He was one of the founders of the Society of Antiquaries of Newcastle, and, at the time of his death, one of its council. The rise and early progress of the Literary and Philosophical Society of Newcastle was much indebted to his exertions, and his membership continued to his death. With many of the charitable and religious associations of the district, Mr. Bell was officially connected, and otherwise throughout his long life he pursued an even and consistent course as an honourable man and worthy and useful citizen, and now passes from among his fellow-townsmen lamented and beloved by all with whom he was connected. The funeral took place on Friday, the 4th instant, his remains being interred in the family vault at Jesmond Cemetery."

468 'A Number of Cuts from Bewick's various Works, and an imperfect copy of the Quadrupeds.

"The name of Thomas Bewick is a 'household word;' and his works are to be found in every region where the language of England is spoken, or her literature cultivated. There are few works which have been so universally diffused as those of Bewick. They are read sudied, admired, and appreciated by intellects of every grade, and by persons of all ages—by the young, by the middle-aged, and by the old. Those who worship nature, and those who worship art, agree in the admiration of the volumes of Bewick."—British Quarterly Review.

GENEALOGY.

To afford an opportunity of keeping together, if possible, the unrivalled genealogical collections of the late Mr. Bell, the whole series, comprising Lots 1897 to 1945, will be offered for sale together, at an upset price of two hundred pounds. If not disposed of, they will be put up singly as time allows.—This wonderful specimen of the ability and assiduity of the antiquary, to which our county historians, Hodgson and Mackenzie, were vastly indebted, extends to nearly eighty volumes and portfolios, some of great thickness: the skill and research which must have been expended herson is marvellous, and the value cannot be over-estimated. To our county families, whose ancestral fame and status they record, the respective volumes would be invaluable; who can tell the "reversions" they may clear up? But as a county record, and as a monument of antiquarian zeal and perseverance, it is devoutly to be wished the whole may be kept together.

BOOKS RELATING TO THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERDAND.

N immense Collection of Private Acts of Parliament relating to this County, Estate Settlements, Percy Estates, Division of Common Lands, Derwentwater Estates, Building Bridges, Regulating Price and Shipment of Coal, against Papists, against Theft on the Marches, Construction of Turnpike Roads, Railways, Docks, Churches, &c. &c. About 500 Acts, some of early date, great rarity, and curious.

Many of these are bound separately, and accompanied with manuscript and other matter illustrative of the subject, which, from Mr. Bell's opportunities and tastes, must add materially to their value. A gentleman well qualified to give an opinion saya—"I have not the slightest hesitation in saying that not only is this series unique, but such another could not at almost any cost be formed."

- 3119 A Collection of Prints relative to this County, mounted in 3 vols., half russia. imperial 4to
- 3120 Ancient Customs which prevail in Northumberland, with Conjectures thereon, and various cuttings from Hone, &c., cloth.
- 3122 Early County History.—MS. copies of Grants of Manors from the Crown, early March Ridings of Manors, Notes on Antient Customs, Grand Jury Lists, &c. &c., some very curious matter compiled by Thomas Bell, in foolscap folio volume, cloth.

- 2125 Northumberland Institution for the Promotion of the Fine Arts, Catalogues of the Exhibitions from 1822 to 1827, with a large number of cuttings, &c., in 1 volume, cloth.
- 3126 Northumberland County Rate, 1830, Schedules of, 4to. Northumberland. List of the Wards, Divisions, Parishes, and Constableries, Alnwick, 1803, with a List of County Bridges, Magistrates, &c., half calf.
- 3127 Northumberland, Account of, from the Magna Britannia, map.
- 3128 Northumberland Charities.—Report of the Government Commission issued in 1836, on the origin and management of the several Charity Funds within the county—1 vol. folio, cloth.
- 3129 Northumberland and Newcastle Local Muniments, a singular gathering of early deeds relating to the county, with subscription and seals, arranged in three solander cases.
  - Thirty-four of these curious relics, dating from 1312, were exhibited to the Antiquarian Society, and are printed in the Archeologia Æliana:
    —that bearing the shrievel signet of the Percy was also shown at the Meeting of the Archeological Institute, and the seal has been engraved for Mr. Longstaffe's paper on the achievements of the illustrious house of Percy.
- 8130 Northumberland Grand Jury.—Manuscript Compilation from the County Records, giving lists of the Grand Jurors, between 1594 and 1630—8vo volume, half bound and lettered.
  - Highly interesting, as shewing the possessors of lands within the county at this early period.

- 3131 Northumberland Sessions Records.—Manuscript extracts with facsimile of curious signatures from the County Sessions Books between 1682 and 1720, presenting a digest of much curious matter, locally and historically interesting, illustrating early customs and superstitions, notices of the rebellions of 1715 and 1745, and other matters—3 vols. folio, lettered.
- 3132 Parochial History of Northumberland.—Collections relative to each Parish in the County, including the particulars printed for public sales, manuscript abstracts of title, valuations, schedules of area, plans, reports on boundaries and other matters, with correspondence relative thereto.
  - A most important and valuable accumulation comprising a variety of information not to be met with elsewhere, and classified ready for mounting, in sixty portfolios.
- 3133 Parochial History of Northumberland.—Compilation from the various published Histories and other Sources, including both manuscript and printed matter, mounted in imperial 4to, as a foundation for the arrangement of the last lot.—Five thick 4to portfolios, lettered.
  - The two last lots form a gigantic record of Mr. Bell's industry and perseverance, comprising, as it does, much imformation acquired during his long professional career, will, it is hoped, fall into the hands of some zealous collector, and be uniformly mounted and bound as a county reference for after ages. In this shape they would be an invaluable addition to a great County Public Library.
- 3134 Roman Catholic Estates.—Particulars from the rolls and registers of the lands held by Roman Catholics, filed in the office of the Clerk of the Peace under the Acts to oblige Papists to register their names and real estates. Abstracted from the originals in 1833 by Thomas Bell.
  - A thick foolscap folio volume, containing not only verbatim copies of the registers, but voluminous illustrative remarks by Mr. Bell described by the Historian of Northumberland, Mr. Hodgeon, in one of several letters inserted as "your very curious volume."
- 3135 Topographical and Biographical Extracts from the Gentleman's Magazine, &c., neatly mounted in an 8vo volume.
- 3136 Northumberland and Durham Artists.—A Compilation of Biographical Notices, Specimens of Works, &c. &c. relating to local Artists and Engravers, imperial 4to, half bound, morocco, and lettered.
